Good cause would include issues relating to the completeness of the document (e.g., missing or incomplete pages). Good cause would additionally include the document being used in a manner contrary to a granted motion in limine.

The parties agree to meet and confer in good faith regarding any disputes about whether there is good cause to dispute the admissibility of a document under the terms of this stipulation, and reserve the right to raise any disputes as to whether the good cause standard is met with regard to a challenged document with the Court prior to the introduction of that document at trial. Stipulating to the admissibility of these documents does not constitute a waiver of any claim or defense.
